TLN Reaffirms Biblical Principle

- TV network executive comments on California's same-sex marriage court ruling

Aurora, Ill., May 21, 2008 (The Religion Wire™) — “In light of last Thursday’s court ruling on same-sex marriage in California, TLN reaffirms the biblical principle that marriage is between a man and a woman; and we invite concerned citizens of San Francisco, California, and the national to contact their representatives and elected officials on this critical matter,” notes Ron Klamert, vice president of Total Living Network (TLN).

“In the coming months, this network will continue its fight for the hearts and minds of our culture. Marriage is in danger on many fronts in America and this ruling is one point of danger.”

Last week, California joined Massachusetts as the only states offering marriage licenses to same-sex couples. In a 4-3 decision, the California state supreme court ruled that the state’s Defense of Marriage Act, Proposition 22, (voter approved in 2000), ban on same sex-marriage was unconstitutional.

A lower court had ruled San Francisco acted unlawfully in issuing marriage licenses to same-sex couples.

California faces the prospect of a constitutional amendment concerning marriage being placed on the November ballot. At the moment, the voter initiative is stalled because of a review by the California secretary of state of voter petition signatures.
