Rockford's TV 51 Awarded Prestigious 2008 Telly Award

• Awarded video highlights Roscoe, Ill., Historic Auto Attractions Museum

Aurora, Ill. (April 4, 2008) The Religion Wire™ — Rockford TV 51 (WCFC), a

Rockford, Ill., affiliate of Total Living Network (TLN), has been recognized in the 29th Annual Telly Awards for its production of "Historic Auto Attractions Museum," a 30-minute television episode featuring the Roscoe, Ill., automobile museum for the channel's "All Around Rockford - On Location" starring Holly Swanson.

The show was filmed, produced, and directed by Andrew Harry Hale of Moments Video (www.MomentsVideo.com) and written by Holly Swanson. Hale, a Rockford independent producer, and Swanson, general manager of TLN's Rockford TV 51, have collaborated on this and five upcoming episodes featuring local Rockford area attractions, which will premiere in 2008.

"Historic Auto Attractions Museum" features Swanson as the guest host interviewing Wayne Lensing, museum owner and Eric Hoffman, museum curator as they tour the museum including nearly one hundred historic, presidential, world leader, television, and movie automobiles and exhibits.

"The whole TLN team is so happy for Andy Harry Hale and general manager Holly Swanson and Rockford TV 51 for winning a prestigious 2008 Telly Award," notes TLN spokesman Brent Kenyon.
